Proceedings

The Ninety-Seventh Annual Session of the Wake Baptist Association and the Forty-Fifth Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary met with the Pilot Baptist Church, Pilot, North Carolina, August 14-15, 1963.

The Reverend Vick Alston, Pastor, Pilot, North Carolina

Dr. George S. Stokes, Moderator.

The Reverend C. C. Jones, A.B., Clerk.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

The Woman's Auxiliary met with the Association 10:00 A.M. for the devotion led by Reverends W. E. Edgerton and B. H. Closs. The Auxiliary joined the devotion and listened to the Welcome Address given by the pastor, Reverend Vick Alston and the response by Professor Joseph Walters, and appointment of Committees.

At 10:35 A.M., the Woman's Auxiliary hour began with Mrs. Edith Trice, president, presiding. The song, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms," was sung after which "Echoes from the field" was heard. The following sisters brought greetings from their local "Missionary Circles."

Mrs. Lizzie B. Askew of the Wakefield Baptist Church reported that the mission work of the church was doing fine in carrying out the commission of spreading the "Good News." Visiting the sick; contributing food, clothing and money. Ministering to the unsaved, encouraging them to accept Christ.

Mrs. Chavis brought greetings from Bethlehem Baptist Church. She urged that the Mission Circles cooperate more in teaching the word of God and have more faith in him.

There were many other expressions. All reported spiritual developmen and asking progress for stronger circles.

After Echoes from the Field came the President's Message. Mrs. Edith M. Trice was introduced and presented by Mrs. M. N. Perry, the Past President of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Trice began her message by stating her willingness to do all in her power to be successful in the capacity as president. She made it clear that the Juniors should be given a chance to work with the Seniors if they do not have a separate organization. The message was inspirational, dynamic and spiritully delivered..

Song

At this time Mrs. Lizzie B. Askew was presented. Mrs. Askew stated that she had served the Auxiliary for more than twenty-five years and that while she had enjoyed the work she felt that a younger person should fill her place. She asked the Committee on Organization not to consider her name for Secretary. At this time Reverend H. B. Perry, Pastor of Mount Bright Baptist Church, Hillsboro, North Carolina, offered a motion that since Mrs. Askew and Mrs. M. N. Perry had rendered many years of loyal and untiring service that something tangible should be given them in recognition of the service rendered. The motion met with a second, voted and carried.

Reverend H. B. Perry from Mount Bright Baptist Church delivered the Annual Sermon. He chose his text from St. Luke the 11th chapter and the 11th verse. In his sermon he made it plain that we as Christians do not reverence the house of God, in that we talk too much and keep too much noise. He also stated we should be careful how we treat our fellowmen.

The sermon was inspirational and spiritually delivered.

Adjournment and dinner served at 1:00 o'clock P.M.

AFTERNOON SESSION — AUGUST 13, 1963

2:00 P.M.

The Auxiliary reassembled to join the brethren. Devotional services were led by Reverend Davis and Reverend Wright. After the devotional services were over, the Moderator, Dr. G. S. Stokes, came before the organizations to deliver his address.

He first stated that we need to dedicate our lives to God that we might be able to stand. He urged each Senior Auxiliary to begin working. He maintained that women preachers were not Baptist Doctrine. He recommended:

1. Churches should strive to make all men Christians.
2. Each church use qualified members to teach in the Training Department.
3. Put in office qualified members to work in the church.
4. Encourage students to attend Shaw University.
5. Encourage Finance for Christian Education.
6. Line up with the pastor's program.
7. Abide by the Baptist Covenant and teach the Principles involved.
8. Wake Association give financial aid to needy churches.

9. Churches give their pastors vacations with pay that they may go away and rest.

10. Association elect a Historical Committee to record events that have occurred through the years.

The address was delivered in excellency.

Reverend S. L. Suitt of Olive Branch gave some high points on "Teaching the Needs of the Missionary Baptist Doctrine and Practices in a Modern World." He stated that we have God as our Supreme Healer and we as Christians call on Him to relieve us. He further emphasized the Holy Spirit emboding the individuals.

Mr. J. T. Jiles came before the house to discuss the same subject. He urged all to do away with hate, malace and a life of "Happy Being"; study and practice the Covenant; and let love rule out hate.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

The Devotions were conducted by Deacons Walter Young and H. L. Clemmons. Scripture read from 121st Psalm and prayer by Deacon Young.

Dr. Askew came forward to discuss the theme, "Teaching the Need of the Missionary Baptist Doctrine and Practices in a Modern World." We gleaned the following points:

1. The Baptist Church should stay in line with the New Testament and that all members have a right to vote and voice their opinion.
2. Baptism is strictly Baptist Belief.
3. Holy Spirit invokes every believer who professes Christ.

Those who sat under his voice were certainly enlightened and made spiritually stronger.

After Dr. Askew's presentation, Reverend C. C. Jones came forward with more enlightening remarks. He stressed the following points:

1. Teach the Bible and believe it whole heartedly.
2. Christ became the mediator between God and man.
3. Man must know God for himself.
4. Missionary Baptist should believe in the Baptist Church and its doctrine.

All points were very enlighening.

Our next speaker was Reverend Craig. He represented the State Missionary and substituted for Dr. O. L. Sherrill. He chose his text from Second Samuel. His message was forceful. He made it plain that we are to give as God had given his only son and the son gave his life. He closed his message by asking us to give more and more for mission.

Collection $54.00.

Adjournment for lunch.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

2:00 — Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Edith M. Trice presiding.

Devotions led by Sisters Elizabeth Chavis, Bessie Hood and W. Chavis. The 23rd Psalm was read as scripture lesson. Mrs. Trice, our president, came before the audience and introduced the speaker of the hour, Mrs. Hazel Sorrell.

Mrs. Sorrell, a teacher in the North Carolina Educational system, a devouted church worker and a civic and social member of many citizens clubs. Her message was one full of inspiration and information.

COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE UNION

Whereas the greatest agitation confronts the United States and the world at large. The Civil Rights desegregation which affects the darker races in general and the American Negro in particular, which is contrary to the teaching of God's word, and which is entirely unfavorable to the Constitution of the United States and the rebellion of the decision handed down by the Supreme Court which has been protested by demonstrations of many of our young people, joined by some of the right thinking white people.

Be it resolved that we endorse the stand taken by those who demonstrate against this unrighteous practice.

Committee,
Dr. C. E. Askew, Chaiman

The Woman's Auxiliary Hour began with Dr. G. S. Stokes, assisted by the Vice President, Mrs. Margaret P. Taylor, presiding. The Junior Choir of First Baptist of Franklinton, sang "Christ Arose" after which Reverend Amos Causey gave invocation and prayer. The scripture lesson, the 24th chapter of St. Luke, verses 1-12, was read by Reverend S. L. Suit. Prayer by Reverend Cook.

The choir rendered another selection after which Mrs. Edith M. Trice ascended the rostrum, accompanied by the guest speaker. She greeted the audience, expressing gratitude, humbleness and thanks for having a part of the great work of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Trice introduced the speaker, Mrs. Blanche A. Rivers of Raleigh, North Carolina, a graduate of Shaw University, received her Masters Degree from Temple University and is employed as a teacher at the State School for the Blind and the Deaf.

Mrs. Rivers used as her theme: "The Living Lord, In the Community."

She spoke dynamically to her audience. Some of the important factors in her address were as follows:

1. Truth does not die, nor perish
2. Self culture and self denial
3. Best for ourselves at the expense of our brethren is not Christ-like
4. We must love
5. Practice fair relations
6. Loving your enemies is fulfilling the law
7. Charity legislates our lives.

In closing, she admonished all to love.

The President expressed gratitude to Mrs. Rivers for bringing such an inspiring message.

The choir sang "He Lives."

Delegates were urged to report to the Finance Committee.

An offering for the Auxiliary was lifted.

"I come to the Garden," was sung by the choir after which the meeting was turned over to the Moderator, Dr. G. S. Stokes. He expressed how very fortunate the Association (Wake Baptist) and Woman's Auxiliary were to have the privilege to meet with the First Baptist Church of Franklinton and their pastor, Reverend Causey, who is a Senior at Baptist Seminary of Wake Forest College.

Suggested amounts for Shaw University from individual churches were given by the Moderator. Receipts were given different churches for money paid for Shaw University at the Annual Setting of the Wake Baptist Association in August.

Reverend S. L. Suitt introduced the speaker, Dr. James Cheek, President of Shaw University.

Dr. Cheek gave an inspiring message. He urged all to help Shaw University, the oldest Negro University alive.

Reverend Edgerton offered prayer after the message.

Offering for Shaw University was taken.
